

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. 1.

SPOUTSPRING, KY., OCT. 24, 1896.

NO. 40.

Hunters should remember that it is unlawful to kill pheasants, quails or any other game birds, before November 15th. The law provides a fine of $25 for each violation, one half of which goes to the informer.

Court Day.

There was over 2,000 cattle for sale. The quality was good, if anything better than usual. Buyers were present from all adjoining counties. The best feeding cattle sold at $3.50; good yearlings at $3.25; cows and heifers at from $2.00 to $2.50; stags and bulls at 2c. Trade was brisk and the pens were about cleaned out by night.

HORSE AND MULE MARKET.

A good many mules on market but very little doing. Weanlings were dull and only a few sold. One extra horse colt sold at $25, but most sales at from $15-$20.

Mr. Beard bought a few aged mules at low prices. Some plug horses sold at from $40 to $50. No good horses sold.—Mt. Sterling Advocate.

The grocery of Moore Bros, Winchester, was broken into and robbed last Thursday night.
